Slide 1: Cover

Adventure Tales

Apki Holidays, Apke Hisaab Se

Come, be part of India's next big travel story - we've got the map, you bring the ambition.

Slide 2: The Opportunity

India Has Caught The Travel Bug (And It's Not Recovering)

Aspiration Is Rising

Holidays used to be a once-a-year event. Now they're a personality trait. Everyone's an "aspiring traveler" - the smart brands are the ones who help them get there.

Trust Is In Short Supply

Everyone's promising the moon. Almost nobody's delivering the itinerary. The brand that actually shows up wins the loyalty - and the referrals.

Personalization Is The New Standard

"One package for everyone" is so 2015. The real money's in giving people exactly what they didn't know they wanted.

Footer: The question isn't if India travels. It's who they trust enough to hand over the itch.

Slide 3: Who We Are

Since 2020, We've Been Building Trips, Not Templates

One founder. One stubborn belief - the traveler comes first, the template comes never.

5 years of curating holidays people actually brag about

International packages across Europe, Asia, Africa and beyond
End-to-end assistance - from the first "what if" to the last boarding pass
Built on one rule: what we promise is what lands in your itinerary

Slide 4: The Founder

The Guy Who's Heard Every Travel Excuse (And Solved For It)

Vicky Dahiya

Founder, Adventure Tales

11 years in the travel game. 10,000+ travelers sent off on trips they still won't stop talking about. Built across B2C and B2B, with one obsession - getting the tiny details right, because that's where trips actually go wrong.

Slide 5: The Problem We Solve

Travel's Fine Print Problem? We Deleted It.

Hidden costs. Big promises. Itineraries that look great on a PDF and fall apart on day two.

No fake promises

No hidden costs

No "wait, that wasn't included?" moments

Slide 6: The Portfolio

One Brand. Every Kind Of Wanderer.

Family vacations

Honeymoon & couple trips

Solo travel (for the ones chasing themselves, not a group chat)

Corporate travel & MICE

Educational tours

Group departures & adventure experiences

Footer: Got a passport and a reason? We've already planned it.

Slide 7: Who We Travel For

Our People Don't Want A Checklist. They Want A Story.

Men and women, 20 to 50 years
Families, couples, solo travelers, corporate professionals
Travelers who want real adventure - minus the budget-airline chaos

Slide 8: What Makes Us Different

We Build The Trip Around You. Not The Other Way Around.

Personalized itineraries, your budget and your pace
End-to-end assistance from first idea to last day
Curated international experiences - not a copy-paste PDF
A team that actually picks up the phone

Slide 9: Why Partner With Us

Cutting To The Chase - Here's Why This Works

Genuine Demand
Personalized travel isn't a trend. It's where the bookings are already going.

Owner Access
Talk to the founder, not a call center script. Decisions happen fast here.

Trust-Led Brand
No hidden costs, no fairy tales - just a reputation that keeps travelers coming back (and bringing friends).

Marketing That Works
Story-led content on Instagram and Facebook, built to send the inquiries straight to you.

Proven Track Record
10,000+ travelers. 11 years in the industry. Receipts, basically.

Growth Story
From international packages to luxury and Antarctica - the early partners get the best seats.

Slide 10: Where We're Going

Plot Twist - We're Just Getting Started

Going luxury, for travelers who want more than a good deal

Adventure tours across Europe, Antarctica and Africa

Building Adventure Tales into the name people trust for the "once in a lifetime" trips

Footer: Some trips deserve more than an itinerary. They deserve a highlight reel.

Slide 11: How We Show Up

Find Us Where The Scrolling Never Stops

Instagram, Facebook, and wherever else your next traveler is doom-scrolling their way to a booking. Story-led content, real trips, real energy - built to make people book before they even ask "how much?"
